OTS EQUIPMENT HELPS MAKE LIVE "SHARK WEEK" UNDERWATER BROADCAST A REALITY

COSTA MESA, CA – VIEWERS WATCHING THE DISCOVERY CHANNEL'S ANNUAL "SHARK WEEK" PROGRAMMING WILL BE TREATED TO THE WORLD'S FIRST LIVE UNDERWATER SHARK ENCOUNTER ON SUNDAY, AUGUST 8. OCEAN TECHNOLOGY SYSTEMS (OTS) IS WORKING CLOSELY WITH FAMED UNDERWATER CINEMATOGRAPHER AL GIDDINGS TO PRODUCE THE TWO-HOUR PROGRAM TITLED, "LIVE FROM A SHARK CAGE." THE PROGRAM WILL KICK OFF THE DISCOVERY CHANNEL'S ANNUAL "SHARK WEEK" EVENT FROM BIKINI ATOLL IN THE SOUTH PACIFIC.

ACCORDING TO OTS PRESIDENT MICHAEL PELISSIER, THE PRODUCTION COMPANY REQUIRED RELIABLE HARD-WIRE COMMUNICATIONS THAT COULD EXTEND TO DEPTHS OF AROUND 200 FEET, IN ADDITION TO IMPORTANT SURFACE SUPPORT STATIONS THAT WILL ALLOW FOR REAL-TIME SATELLITE COMMUNICATIONS. HAVING DONE MANY OF THESE TYPES OF PRODUCTIONS IN THE PAST, OTS WAS A NATURAL CHOICE FOR GIDDINGS AND HIS TEAM.

GIDDINGS, WHO WILL BE DIVING FROM THE U.S.S. SARATOGA DURING THE BROADCAST, WILL NOT ONLY BE CONNECTED TO THE SURFACE SUPPORT STATION, BUT HE WILL ALSO HAVE THE CAPABILITY TO COMMUNICATE WITH OTHER DIVERS IN THE WATER AT ANOTHER SITE NEAR BIKINI ATOLL. SOME OF THESE DIVERS WILL BE UP TO 20 MILES AWAY. HE WILL ALSO BE ABLE

TO COMMUNICATE VIA SATELLITE WITH VIEWERS ALL OVER THE WORLD.
